

Short Biography

Prof. Dr. Ho holds a Bachelor's in Urban and Regional Planning from UTM, a Master's in Construction Management from Heriot-Watt University (UK), and a Doctor of Engineering in System Information Engineering from Toyohashi University of Technology (Japan). He also completed the ASEAN Senior Management Development Program at Harvard Business School (Malaysia). An expert in low-carbon and smart cities, urban sustainability, and environmental modelling, Prof. Ho has led major national and regional initiatives including the Low Carbon Cities Development Programme for Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Putrajaya, Pengerang, and Iskandar Malaysia. He has served as SATREPS (Science and Technology Partnership for Sustainable Development) Project Manager for the Development of Low Carbon Society for the Asian Region and also Team Leader for 8 pilot cities of Global Covenant of Mayors (GCOM) Malaysia as well as think tank for Malaysia task force for the ASEAN Climate Change Strategic Action Plan (ACCSAP) 2025-2030.